Gen 44-46

- DIVINING CUP = a goblet was filled with water and the divine fixed their gaze on a particular point of the water until they fell into a trance or dream like state, at which point they could allegedly see futuristic events
- The testing Joseph put his brethren through revealed their guilt and proved their repentance, in that when they saw Benjamin's "favor" (43:34) and were given the opportunity to rid themselves of him and his favor to save themselves (44:10,17), and they refused
- In contrast to their treatment of Joseph 20 years earlier, all the brothers were willing to go into bondage with Benjamin (44:16); and Judah was willing to suffer Benjamin's punishment in his place (44:33)
- It was not until this repentance was evident that Joseph would reveal himself to his brethren (45:1,3)

Joseph, The Great Type Of Jesus Christ

1. He revealed himself to his brethren after they demonstrated repentance (45:1-3) cf. (Zec 12:10)
2. God sent him to save his brethren's lives (45:5,7) cf. (Luke 9:56)
3. He was made lord of all (45:9) cf. (Acts 10:36)
